Alumni Association

James Simmons and Thelma Simmons of Grayson were elected Vice-President and Secretary of the newly formed Kentucky Bible Institute Alumni Association, in Summersville at the United Pentecostal Church Campground.

The first President is Matthew Coomer of Campbellsville and Treasurer is Anthony Keaton of Flatwoods.

The four centers that make up the Kentucky Bible Institute are located in Morehead, Elizabethtown, Bowling Green and Paducah.

The Kentucky Bible Institute known as KBI will be starting its fourth year September 13th.

James and Thelma Simmons are graduates of East Carter High School and members of the Grayson United Pentecostal Church.

They just received their certificate from KBI in June this year.
